October is National Arts & Humanities Month.

Here is President Biden’s proclamation.

Here is Governor Evers’ proclamation.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

“Aesthetic value is often the by-product of the artist striving to do something else.” – Evelyn Waugh

“I do what I feel impelled to do, as an artist would. Scientists function in the same way. I see all these as creative activities, as all part of the process of discovery. Perhaps that's one of the characteristics of what I call the evolvers, any subset of the population who keep things moving in a positive, creative, constructive way, revealing the truth and beauty that exists in life and in nature.” – Jonas Salk

“Some people might look at something and let it go by, because they don't recognize the pattern and the significance. It's the sensitivity to pattern recognition that seems to me to be of great importance. It's a matter of being able to find meaning, whether it's positive or negative, in whatever you encounter. It's like a journey. It's like finding the paths that will allow you to go forward, or that path that has a block that tells you to start over again or do something else.” – Jonas Salk

“Paradoxically, the man who has failed and one who is at the peak of success are in exactly the same position. Each must decide what he will do next, choose the course that will lead him to the future.” – Jigoro Kano

“Humanity is acquiring all the right technology for all the wrong reasons.” – R. Buckminster Fuller

“I realize that humor isn't for everyone. It's only for people who want to have fun, enjoy life, and feel alive.” – Anne Wilson Schaef
